From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Thanks and Congratulations

Thanks to our liturgical ministers. Since our churches reopened at the end of June, many of them have been so helpful to be part of our liturgical celebrations. While some have decided not to return to in person mass yet out of abundance of caution, others have offered to assist as many times as needed. Their commitment and participation are greatly appreciated.

Congratulations to our RCIA friends! Seven of them celebrated their Sacraments of Initiation; one of them was received into full communion with the catholic faith; and one had Confirmation and First Communion on Sat. Aug. 1st. After weeks of prolonged studies and waiting, they were joyfully welcomed into our Church. We rejoice with them; we welcome them and assure them of our continuous prayers: YoYo Edith Wu, Fiona Alice Duan, Wen Kai Joseph Lu, Wen Hua John Lu, Juan Francis Jimenez, Chon Heong Maria Ng, Traji Francis Morris, JaDonna Bernadette Kendricks, and Shannon Kelly Genevieve Doran

Congratulations to the class of 2020! They had their Baccalaureate Mass last Sunday at St. Barbara Church and will have their graduation this Sunday. We thank God for their achievements and pray that they will continue to succeed in their respective high schools.

Congratulations to Lucas Leobardo Chavez, child of Rudy Chavez Jr. and Diana Gaona! Lucas was baptized last Sunday at St. Barbara Church.

Peace ~ Fr. Francis

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

Socialism? (II of II) – 6. Socialism promotes atheism. Belief in God, who unlike us is infinite, omnipotent and omniscient, clashes head-on with the Socialism's principle of absolute equality. Socialism therefore rejects the spiritual, claiming that only matter exists. God, the soul, and the next life are illusions according to socialism. 7. *Socialism promotes relativism. For socialism there are no absolute truths or revealed morals that establish standards of conduct that apply to everyone, everywhere, and always. Everything evolves, including right and wrong, good and evil. There is no place for the Ten Commandments, no traditional morality view, neither in the private mind nor in the public square. 8. *Socialism mocks religion. According to Karl Marx, religion is "the opium of the people." Lenin, founder of the Soviet Union, agreed: "Religion is a sort of spiritual booze in which the slaves of capital drown their human image, their demand for a life more or less worthy of man." In short, socialism advises how to redistribute wealth, but not how to create it. It banishes God, starves the soul, stifles initiative, dismantles the family, and has shipwrecked many nations. Of course, we cannot hold that all the above criticisms are applicable to all future socialism ideas, as socialism may evolve just as what capitalism has done throughout the years. A point we want to make is that God gives us a complete freedom to choose to be with him or to be forever banned from him. And that freedom comes with a responsibility to seek the truth and the will to do good. Any decision we make has consequences. With that in mind, the country that governs should give as much freedom as possible to the peoples so they all are able to choose how they live their lives with responsibility. Note that many socialism ideas in various forms have been proposed in attempts to solve modern society problems, while our Church has been working hard to address the same problems with her concepts of social justice and dignity of human life derived from her traditional beliefs. It is our duty to put these teachings of our Church into practice. (<https://tfpstudentaction.org/blog/10-reasons-to-reject-socialism>)

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary – The Solemnity of the Assumption (8/15/2020) celebrates the Blessed Mother's entrance into heavenly glory. Her "yes" to life shows us how precious God's gift of human life indeed is. Throughout her life, she continually chose to go deeper into her relationship with God. She inspires us how we should live our lives today. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

RENEW MY CHURCH UPDATE

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

We would like to give you a quick update on the RMC status in our Parish. We just finished a fiscal year which was the first year of the unified parish operating under the supervision of RMC. At the end of this fiscal year, RMC began transmitting the parish supervision to regular Archdiocese offices and ministries. This process will take longer than expected due to the COVID-19 situation but does not affect daily parish operations.

The only area where we are not transitioning out of RMC supervision is our building/property situation. As you all know, our parish has many buildings in different technical conditions and degrees of use. The most urgent and important problem is that the majority of these buildings have utility systems (heating, water, sewer) long past their expected service life and are in need of replacement. The age of these systems makes the monthly operation cost very high. The majority of the buildings also require major renovations and improvements both interior and exterior.

The Parish has been working intensively with RMC to create a plan for parish buildings and their use. Due to the parish's financial situation, there is no simple solution to renovate these buildings. We think that now we must work on a Master Plan for our parish and each campus. The Master Plan will result in a concept of which buildings and spaces are needed to fulfill the parish mission and provide quality and efficient space for all parish ministries (including school). The Master Plan will include a study of existing and planned parish ministries and services, their possible development, and each building's situation including: their condition, degree of space use, and repair cost vs. new construction. Right now, we are looking for an architect firm to prepare this Master Plan for us. We are working closely with and under the supervision of RMC on this because RMC has experience in this area and ultimately acts in the name of the property owner which is the Archbishop of Chicago.

We hope that the Master Plan will help us make the best decision regarding our building situations. Until today, it was not possible to develop a single and coherent concept for the future of the buildings. Everyone agrees that we cannot continue in the current situation for a long time due to the buildings' conditions and extremely high utility and upkeep costs. Therefore, it is necessary to conduct an in-depth and professional analysis of our needs in order to make the best decision for the future. Again, no final decision regarding any of our buildings has been made until today. We are performing only necessary maintenance and repairs.

We will keep you informed on the progress of the study and, at the proper time, include your involvement in the discussions about our Master Plan.

God's Presence by Sr. Caritas

One of the basic things we know is that each of us is made in the image and likeness of God. Every time I hold a young baby, I see tiny fingers, nose and lips so perfectly formed. For me, holding a newborn child is a time of being very close to God. In creating each of us God has given us a deep longing, a sense of God. We long to be close to God.

In the first reading today, Elijah goes to God's special mountain, Horsebox. He found a cave for shelter. God came to Elijah and told him to stand at the entrance of the cave. God would pass by. As Elijah stood there a sting wind came "but God was not in the wind". An earthquake came and later fire but "God was not in the earthquake or the fire". Lastly there was a "tiny" whispering sound and Elijah covered his face with His cloak as he recognized God's coming

In the last part of today's Gospel we see the disciples in the boat in a storm and Jesus came walking on the water toward them. The disciples realized that Peter was no different than Peter wanted to walk on water when Jesus was walking toward them. Peter, at Jesus response began walking on water too and then became fearful crying out to be saved. Jesus saves Him. Peter and Jesus get into the boat and the disciples respond in faith "beyond doubt you're the Son of God."

It takes faith to recognize the presence of God. In faith the disciples recognized Jesus as the "Son of God." Elijah recognized God in the tiny sound. What are the ways you recognize God in your life? Where are the visitations and times which deepen your faith and help you believe? When you recognize God, does your fear go away? When you recognize God does your faith deepen? How do you feel and what are you willing to do when you recognize God and God's presence in your life?
