From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Thanks

Thanks to all who helped with the planning and celebration of the feast of St. Mother Teresa, our parish patroness. From our ministers, to all involved children and families, and to the missionaries of Charity, and to Bishop Casey, all came together to honor St. Mother Teresa and implore for her intercessions. It was a beautiful celebration despite of Covid-19 restrictions.

Catechetical Sunday 2020

Next weekend we celebrate Catechetical Sunday and this year's theme is "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you." This offers all catechists a wonderful opportunity to rededicate ourselves to the Lord and to our parish. It also gives our community a chance to pray and appreciate our catechists.

Our parish is in "Building the New Reality" phase of Renew My Church (RMC). This is a time for our entire community to refocus our energy, time and resources into mission and evangelization and to hand on what we have received from the Lord to those among us and in our neighborhood. As a parish, our vision is "to be Jesus Christ in Chinatown, Bridgeport and beyond." And the vision of the RMC is "to make disciples, inspire witness, and build communities." How are we to achieve these imperatives? What can each of us do to be part of this great mission? The answer is simple and it is from Jesus himself: "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Mt. 28:19-20).

Evangelization is a big and abstract word, but it is about "bringing the Good News of Jesus into every human situation and seeking to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel itself. At its essence are the proclamation of salvation in Jesus Christ and the response of a person in faith, which are both works of the Spirit of God."

In Go and Make Disciples: A National Plan and Strategy for Catholic Evangelization in the United States, we are told that all Christians have responsibility to evangelize and we do so "by the way we live God's love in our daily life; by the love, example, and support people give each other; by the ways parents pass faith on to their children; in our life as church through the proclamation of the Word and the wholehearted celebration of the saving deeds of Jesus; in renewal efforts of local and national scope; in the care we show to those most in need; and in the ways we go about our work, share with our neighbors, and treat the stranger. In daily life, family members evangelize each other; men and women, their future spouses; and workers, their fellow employees, by the simple lives of faith they lead. Through the ordinary patterns of our Catholic life, the Holy Spirit brings about conversion and a new life in Christ."

Clearly, we all are commissioned to share with others what we have received from the Lord. Our faith is a great gift to share, to practice and to appreciate. Let's not be afraid to carry on the Mission of Jesus Christ.

Peace ~ Fr. Francis

Faith Witness #7: Michael Pietrzak

Faith, as I see it, is a belief that all things work together for good. After all, if in the beginning there was only God, and if God created everything, then, in my mind, all things are good - even when they look and feel like they are not. Let me explain.

My parents forced me to take piano lessons in 3rd grade but I had no interest.

Getting me to practice was a battle and they took me to lessons kicking and screaming. While I stopped lessons at the end of that year, I kept playing the piano and practicing, and at different points after, on and off, I asked for more lessons -- all to my parent's surprise. I even started playing the organ at my home parish.

At the end of my freshman year in college, I was offered a position as a Parish Music Director which included teaching music in the school. Since I was pursuing my degree in education, I jumped at that opportunity. That same year, Greta Chamberlain (now a Cantor at St. Therese's 8 am Mass) was also hired. She became my friend and mentor coaching me as a teacher and introduced me to gospel music which I never thought I could play! She had faith in me!

Music fell off as I moved into a career in educational administration until a few years ago when the urge to bring music back into my life started gnawing at me stronger and stronger.

Late one evening, a few months later, I got a random call that started with, "Michael, what are you doing Sunday mornings?" Puzzled, I asked, "Who is this?" - thinking: I know this voice.

That call was from Greta - after more than 20 years! She said she cantored at St. Therese and asked if I would play for the 8 am just once a month! I agreed. After all, how could I say no to the person who shaped me as an educator and musician since it was just one Sunday a month! (Little did I know it would become all four!)

So you might be asking: what does this have to do with faith? Going back to the beginning, I hated piano lessons. I did not see them as good. But, those lessons introduced me to the music in my soul that I did not know about which led to my first adult job where I met Greta. And, after 20+ years, it was the music that came from those lessons that reconnected Greta and me and led me to bring that music to the people of St. Mother Teresa I never stop being reminded that faith is unseen and it is an act of faith to be able to step back and know: all things work together for good - even when I cannot see the good. It also reminds me that many people and events are unknowing guideposts along the way!

Next week look out for the backstory of our beautiful new organ.

Each Alpha session includes hospitality, a short film, and a discussion. Here at SMTCP our Evangelization committee is launching Alpha on Tuesday, Sept. 22nd at 7p.m. If you are interested, please contact thoward@sttheresechicago.org

Forgive Again and Again by Sr. Caritas

When we are in the process of growing up, our parents begin the important lesson. We are taught the lesson of forgiveness. If you have a brother or sister, it starts there. "Tell your brother you're sorry." Then we are taught how to accept the apology. We may not be happy about it but we learn to deal with the "hurt" or problem and we learn to say we are sorry. It is a lesson which goes with us our whole lives and we gradually really understand both the importance and real process of forgiving. It is one of the most challenging teaching of Jesus. We look at Jesus as the model.

The first reading today talks about having hate, anger, vengeance and other hate-filled feelings in our lives. Peter in the Gospel asks how many times we are to be forgiving. The challenge to be Christian is great. The Our Father prayer reminds us that we ask God to forgive us as we forgive others. Last of all Jesus example of asking God, His Father, to forgive those who were crucifying Him. We are called to have and develop a forgiving heart. As we grow older, we realize WHAT REAL FORGIVENESS IS. It is more than just "saying words."

Walking the way of forgiveness requires great self- knowledge. We need to look into our own hearts and see how much we need to be forgiven. We need to pray daily for the graces we need to lead a life of forgiveness. If we ask, God will give the gift. If, when we go to bed at night, we ask God to forgive us our sinfulness and weakness God will forgive us. We also need to go to rest with a forgiving heart toward others. Being like Jesus is a lifelong task. Holiness requires forgiveness.
