From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Congratulations and Thanks

Congratulations to our First Communicants, who celebrated their First Holy Communion last Saturday at St. Therese Church:

Michael Casey
Sergio Cerritos
Aleksander Chavez
Ryan Delfin
Anthony Dominguez
Rossella Folino

Anthony Guzman
Autumn Lopez
Miranda Medellin
Briana Monreal
Patrick Mulhearn
Javier Ortega

Sergio Reyes
Carys Rodriguez
Yssa Villagrana
Olivia Walczak
Carter Walker

They were expected to have their First Communion on May 17th, 2020, but due to the global pandemic, we had to reschedule it to last Saturday. After a little more than three months of patiently waiting, it was wonderful for me to witness our children's joy and excitement in receiving Jesus for the first time. Their love for the Eucharist is a reminder for us all to renew our love and appreciation for the gift of the precious Eucharist.

We thank their parents, families, teachers, and catechists for accompanying them and preparing them so well for this special celebration.

Thanks to Tony Lin and his friends for spending hours to voluntarily clean and rearrange all the boxes neatly for the choir loft at St. Therese Worship Site.

Thanks to Chris Lowe for donating three boxes of face masks to our parish.

St. Mother Teresa and Eucharist

This weekend we celebrate the feast of St. Mother Teresa (Sept. 5th), patroness of our unified parish. It calls us to take some time to celebrate and to reflect on the work of Renew My Church and of the mission of our parish and of the inspiring life of St. Mother Teresa. Just a little over a year ago, our parish was blessed to be named, "St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta." St. Mother Teresa (1910-1997) dedicated her entire life to serve the poorest of the poor. Her unconditional love for Jesus and all of God's people continue to inspire countless people to serve, to give and to love. As Catholics and as a faith community, what an awesome example we have in St. Mother Teresa!

The secret for St. Mother Teresa's dedicated life is her love for the Eucharist. In a letter written by Mother Teresa in 1947 to Archbishop Perier of Calcutta, she writes:

From the age of 5-1/2 years, -when first I received Him [Jesus] – the love for souls has been within – It grew with the years – until I came to India – with the hope of saving many souls” (Mother Teresa: Come Be My Light, Doubleday, page 15).

Gina Loeher describes St. Mother Teresa's profound Eucharistic faith as follows:

Mother Teresa believes that the union the sisters experience with Jesus in Holy Communion is inseparable from their lives. He himself renews and refreshes them every morning at Mass. ‘Our life is linked to the Eucharist,’ [Mother Teresa] would say. She also stated simply that without beginning each day with Jesus in Communion, ‘we could do nothing.’ (The Four Teresas, page 91).

When it comes to adoration of the Eucharist, St. Mother Teresa says:

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth. It will make your soul everlastingly more glorious and beautiful in Heaven. A Holy Hour of adoration helps bring everlasting peace to your soul and in your family. It brings us personal peace and strength. It brings us a greater love for Jesus, for each other, and for the poor. Every holy hour deepens our union with Him and bears much fruit.

It is clear that Eucharist was the indispensable source of strength and nourishment for St. Mother Teresa. We know that this is true for all Catholics that Eucharist is “the source and summit of our faith.” So let's appreciate the gift of the Eucharist; let's ask for St. Mother Teresa's intercessions for the renewal of our faith; and let's pray for God's grace to empower us to imitate the holy life of St. Mother Teresa.

Peace ~ Fr. Francis

Love One Another by Sr. Caritas

Some families have difficulties. Auntie will not talk to another aunt or uncle. Something happened many years ago. Other family members have to “tip toe” around the problem family relationship. Sometimes these things go on one generation after another. After a while, people do not remember why “We don’t talk to Aunt Suzie.” Where love is supposed to be, people are treated as the Jewish people treated the Gentiles. They did not relate to each other.

The readings in the liturgy today, give us blueprints or outlines useable in relationships or families. The first reading tells us how to act if our “brother”, or any person wrongs us. Go to the person and tell them. If going alone and talking does not work, take two or three others with you and tell the person again with witnesses. If the person does not listen or is willing to change, then go to the church. If they will not listen to even the church, “then treat that person as a Gentile or tax. Collector”. If the person who wronged you or does not keep the commandments, does not change even after your warning, God will see them as guilty. If you do not correct them because of their behavior and choices, God will see you as guilty. St Paul tells us to “owe no one except to love one another”. Jesus said, “Where two or three are gathered in prayer and ask anything, in my name, I am there in the midst of them”. St. Paul says, “Love is the fulfillment of the laws.”

How will you live out these teachings? Today, we see violence, shooting and other things directed at others. We want peace and health and betterment of our lives. We pray for an end to the virus. We try at this time to pray for justice toward each other. We pray out of love for those who have lost their jobs, those who are in danger of a loss of their homes. We pray for those first responders and teachers on the front line of healing and preventing the spread of the virus. Two or three of all of us “gather together and ask the Father in Jesus name. We ask out of love for others, those of our family, friends, faith community in the name of Jesus. We ask The Father. All of us gathered in the name of Jesus, know Jesus is in our midst.
