From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Thanks

This past Christmas and New Year celebrations were peaceful, prudent, and certainly with less festivities. We were blessed to have so many of our parishioners and visitors to celebrate the masses both in person and online with us. At the same time, we missed seeing a lot of our parishioners who without the pandemic would have been part of our joyful celebrations.

During this challenging time, I am continuously amazed by the good that so many of you do for our parish on a daily basis. Thanks to all for making our holy day celebrations safe and fruitful.

Special thanks to our liturgical ministers for their extraordinary commitment and to all of our parishioners and benefactors who have generously and financially supported our Christmas giving. Our parish's Christmas collection in this unusual year is about $50,000.00, which sets a new record high. This definitely helps our operations during this unprecedented time when more than sixty percent of our regular parishioners can't attend our parish's services in person, yet our parish strives to provide as much services both in person and online as possible and to do our best to keep our doors open.

Special thanks to ZhiWei Niu and Paul Wang for their generous Christmas donation of $1000.00 and for choosing our parish this year as their company's matching donation organization. So their $1000.00 with 3X matching becomes a $4000.00 Christmas offering to our parish. If your company has matching donations, you may want to consider our parish too.

Special thanks to Linda Leong and her family for having 250 customized masks made with our churches' logos, and generously donating them to our parish. I plan to give these to our ministers and volunteers in the upcoming Appreciation Gathering or at an appropriate time.

Special thanks to three of our youngsters, Lizzy Andriacchi, Christina and Rosella Follino for taking time to spread some Christmas joy and care to our neighbors by distributing a Christmas wrist band and a greeting message on behalf of our parish and thanks to Ellen and Nick Andriacchi for organizing this.

New Year "Resolution"

What's your New Year's resolution for your own life, your family, and your parish?

The celebration of the Baptism of the Lord calls us to reflect on our own baptismal missions. Our baptism makes each one of us a part of the Body of Christ and gives us the privilege of living in the Good News and sharing it with our brothers and sisters.

As I look forward to serve you in the New Year, I would like to invite all of us to ponder and act upon the following areas of Mission for responding to the Mission entrusted to us by our Lord and for the good of our faith community: focusing and getting involved with radical hospitality, faith formation and evangelization. As a community, we must continue to follow the call of our Lord by being fed with the Eucharist, the center of our life and of the life of our community, by finding creative ways to reach out to our brothers and sisters with the Good News, and by fostering “a culture of care” as Pope Francis invites us to do at his New Year’s message.

I can spend hours and pages with each of the three areas I mentioned, namely hospitality, formation and evangelization. As for now, I ask you to pray about it and to give some thoughts on how you would like to be part of these missions. Throughout this year, you will hear more from me on these missionary endeavors and as a community we will intentionally work on them.

Peace~ Fr. Francis

The Grace of Baptism ---Fr. John Cuff

Years ago, there was a conference in England to discuss the question, “What makes Christianity different from all the other religions of the world?” At the conference, some suggested that Christianity is unique in its teaching that God became a human being. It was pointed out that the Hindu religion has many instances of God coming to earth as human. Others suggested that it is the belief in the resurrection. Again it was pointed out that other faiths believe that the dead rise again. The debate grew loud and heated until C. S. Lewis, the great defender of Christianity, came in. “What’s the rumpus about?” he asked. When he was told that it was a question of the uniqueness of Christianity, he said, “Oh, that’s easy. It’s grace.”

In a reading on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, Paul’s Letter to Titus focuses on us Christians as people who have been saved through the grace of Baptism. “For when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit.” (Titus 3:4-5).

Here we see the meaning of grace. G-R-A-C-E spells God’s Riches At Christ’s Expense. The salvation we’ve received isn’t in payment for any good works we may have done but a free and unconditional gift of God. In Baptism God wipes away all our sins and no longer holds us accountable for them. My favorite definition of grace is “God gives everything in return for nothing to us who don’t deserve anything.”

C.S. Lewis was right when he said that the doctrine of grace makes the Christian faith unique among all other faiths. There are no preconditions for receiving God’s grace. To receive God’s grace is free and unconditional. But to remain in God’s grace demands a response from us. This response is, on the one hand, that we say no to the devil and to the temptation to run our own lives according to our selfish and worldly inclinations, and, on the other hand, that we submit to God and lead our lives in submission to God’s holy will. In order words, we who have received the grace of baptism must endeavor to live up to our Baptismal promises.

As we celebrate Christ’s Baptism in the Jordan, let us thank God for the free gift of salvation we received through the grace of Baptism. Let us also earnestly ask Him for the grace to keep us faithful to our baptismal promises to say no to Satan and all his false promises and to say yes to God even unto death.

ST. THERESE SCHOOL NEWS

As part of our Religious Education program, St. Therese School's 7th and 8th grade students and Parish PREP students continue working on their Saint Project. Their research and reflection was conducted in preparation for both All Saints Day and their upcoming Confirmation next spring.

St. Joseph (c. 1st century CE)

- Patron saint of workers.
- Patron of the Universal Church.
- Spouse of Blessed Virgin Mary.
- Foster father of Jesus.
- Descendant of King David.
- Year of St. Joseph (Dec. 8, 2020---Dec. 8, 2021), proclaimed by Pope Francis
- Feast Day: March 19

Student Reflection #1: I believe this saint will help me pursue my faith because he shows what you can become when you work hard. St. Joseph will also help me pursue my holiness, because he shows me that I don't have to have a normal life. I can do what I want to do, whether that's becoming a priest, lawyer, or whatever I want to be. As long as I believe.

In Whom I am Pleased by Sr. Caritas

Sometimes when teaching I would have to find ways to encourage good behavior. I would tell the fourth row that they were sitting so straight and were the best row. Everyone in the row sat very straight and tall and all the other rows in the class immediately adjusted their behavior and I would proceed to compliment other rows. Soon the whole class was sitting correctly and quietly. Perhaps you remember a compliment from a teacher or another person you respected and what a deep, impression it made on you.

In today's Gospel, we have the story of Jesus being baptized in the Jordan by John the Baptist. Jesus comes up out of the water. "He saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending on him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased." As the Holy Trinity is manifested in this gospel, The Father praises and identifies Jesus as the loved Son and is pleasing to the Father. This affirmation of Jesus is for John the Baptist and for anyone else who is there and is open to hearing and having faith.

If we are Catholic at some time, we were baptized. By being baptized we become adopted children of God. God is truly Our Father. Jesus is Our Brother and we are filled with the Holy Spirit. At that moment God, The Father can say of us what He said of Jesus, "You are my son (or daughter) in whom I am well pleased." The challenge of our lives is to live this adoption and "pleasing the Father" each day of our lives. It takes faith to recognize this special relationship with God. We live in the grace we are given and are led by the Holy Spirit. If we take time to let this reality deepen in us, if we take time to live out our adoption, we will experience the affirmation of the Father. He will be pleased in us. God will live in us and we will reveal Jesus, God, to those we meet. Will you take the time to fully enter into this wonderful mystery?

“To celebrate the Gospel of life means to celebrate the God of life, the God who gives life...
 In every child which is born and in every person who lives or dies we see the image of God’s glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ”

Prayer for the New Year

"May God make your year a happy one!
Not by shielding us from all sorrows and pain,
But by strengthening us to bear it, as it comes;
Not by making our path easy,
But by making us sturdy to travel any path;
Not by taking hardships from us,
But by taking fear from our heart;
Not by granting us unbroken sunshine,
But by keeping our face bright, even in the shadows;
Not by making our life always pleasant,
But by showing us when people and their causes need us most,
and by making us anxious to be there to help.
God's love, peace, hope and joy to us for the year ahead."
